NADD is ramping up for NDI and Convention!

NADD committees for the News Directors' Institute and the Annual Convention are finalizing details for two outstanding events that kick-off together in Chicago in April!

Capping months of planning and organizing, both the 2009 New Directors' Institute and the Convention, "The Deacon as a Prophetic Voice," promise to be quality events that will enable deacon formation directors to become more effective in their work while being renewed in their ministries.

So far, NDI has participants enrolled from the archdioceses of Atlanta, Boston, and Indianapolis, and from the dioceses of Birmingham, Columbus, Fresno, Honolulu, Kalamazoo, Knoxville, Lafayette, Lansing, and Owensboro. Several others have also called to say, "Hold a spot for me!"

Convention registrations have also been strong. Participants are eager to hear keynote addresses by Bishop Octavio Cisneros, Rev. Thomas Baima, and Dr. Samuel Betances. The Directors' Workshop with Rev. John Kaserow and the Women's Workshop with Sr. Marcia Vinje are likewise popular with registrants.

If you have not yet reserved a spot for NDI or the Convention, there is still time! The NADD office can accept registrations by mail, email or fax, and we can process payments by credit card. Please call if you have questions.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Chicago!

Regards,

Tom
